August 2023

2024 Rodeo

The 2024 Show will be High Bidders 40th Year and we plan on making it a banner year.

From our beginning in 1984 through the 2023 Show we have contributed just over $1,000,000.00 to the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo and Hardship Kids.

Without your support and personal commitment to our organization this would not be possible

Our Bowling Tournament this past week was one of our top tournaments and are looking for our Shrimp Boil on October 7th to be a record breaker.

We look forward to seeing you very soon and sharing a toast(s) with our old and new friends.

MISS MC HEARTTHROB monthly

Ag-ventures With Heartthrob™

Monthly Update

In this month's episode of MISS MC HEARTTHROB monthly, I would like to report it has been very hot. Very, very VERY hot.

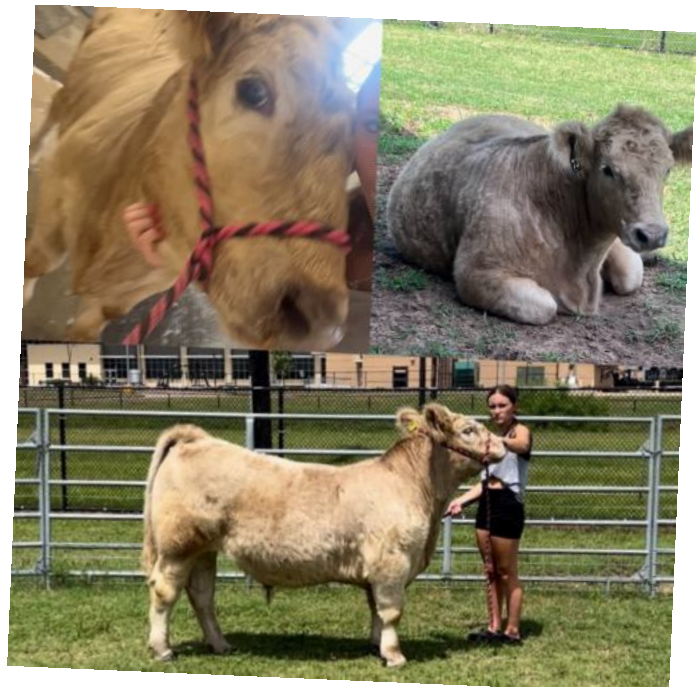

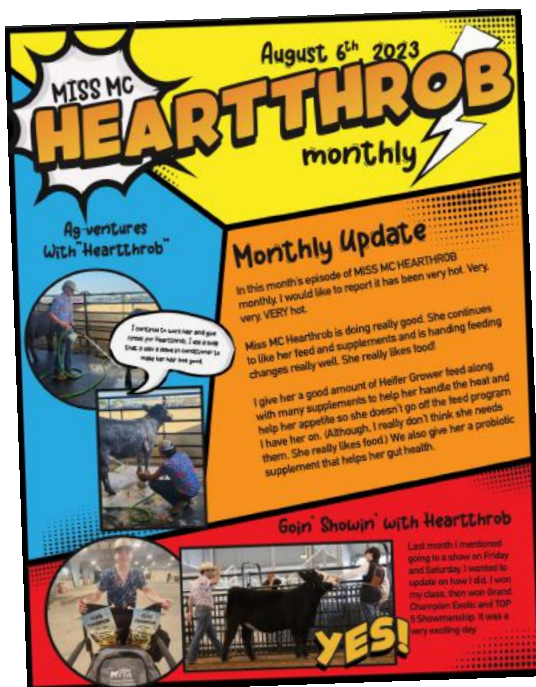

Miss MC Heartthrob is doing really good. She continues to like her feed and supplements and is handling feeding changes really well. She really likes food!

I give her a good amount of Heifer Grower feed along with many supplements to help her handle the heat and help her appetite so she doesn't go off the feed program I have her on. (Although, I really don't think she needs them. She really likes food.) We also give her a probiotic supplement that helps her gut health.

Gain Showin' with Heartthrob

Last month I mentioned going to a show on Friday and Saturday. I wanted to update on how I did. I won my class, 8th was Grand Champion Stevie and Top 5 Showmanship. It was a very exciting day.

THE RAHENS' Monthly
20 July 2023

Monthly Updates
I have learned so much from the veterinarians at the Veterinary Science Certification camp at Texas A&M in July. But the main knowledge that I gained from this experience was understanding large animal (cattle) behavior. After the camp, I was able to apply this knowledge to my steer. I read more of his body language and instinctual behaviors. For example, I realized after watching his ears, bulging eyes, and the flaring of his nose, that Edgar is afraid of bees, or at least the sound of them, haha. I'll be able to apply this knowledge in the ring as well. When he may step as I'm walking him, I'll need to observe him and our surroundings to figure out what could be the problem.

Over the month of July Edgar gained 55 pounds, and is now a total of 1,915 pounds! He has been chewing through 3 bales of Sudan hay and has been enjoying his 4-T. I've also been staying consistent with washing, walking him, and working on his hair in preparation for the upcoming show season.

Poem Of the Month
Summers end
those late nights now call to me
like an old friend
No more free time I can spend
as summer has come to an end
The school's bell calls to me once again
I am sad but glad that summer
has come to an end.

Goals

This month I had a couple of goals in mind. I wanted to build a shelter out in the pasture, somewhere for Heartthrob to get out of the sun on days when she is out grazing. I built this shelter with some help from my Dad and Pop. I was able to gain experience welding and Heartthrob got a new shady spot.
